Badly Burned.

Mrs. Benj. Alvord of Brigham City, was quite seriously burned last Sunday in a sheep camp near Stone, Ida., where her husband, Mr. Alvord, is taking care of a herd of sheep. A baby upset a lamp upon a hot stove which caused an explosion. Mrs. Alvord saved the baby from injury, but was severely burned herself. They reached this city late Monday night having made the trip from Stone, Idaho, a distance of eighty-five miles, in a sheep wagon. Dr. Harding of Brigham was summoned and with M. A. Boothe went to meet them west of town. Mrs. Alvord was taken to the home of Mr and Mrs M A Boothe where everything possible was done to relieve her prolonged sufferings. She was carried to the depot Tuesday morning by a number of friends and with her husband and the doctor boarded the train for Brigham. Mr. Alvord is a brother of Mrs. M A Boothe.

"Just For Fun."

Monday evening the Garland Amusement hall was crowded to its utmost capacity by an appreciative audience who were in attendance at the pleasing society drama, "Just for Fun," presented under the auspices of the Young Ladies' Mutual Improvement Assn. The matinee Monday afternoon also drew a good sized crowd. The Garland Dance Orchestra furnished the music for both performances and did splendid work.

The drama was one of the best plays ever presented at the hall by home talent and gave entire satisfaction, bringing forth storms of applause from the large audience present.

The "masquerade" scene in the last act created considerable merriment.

The characters were well sustained and the costumes were rich and of the royal family type.

Following is the cast of characters:

Mrs. Fitzgerald Mandeville de Smythe... Mrs. Stella S. Hyde
Miss Edith Morton... Miss Esie Evans
Miss Mabel West... Mrs. Jennie A. Boothe
Jane McCarthy... Miss Alice Grover
Lord Chelsea... Mr. Wright Evans
Jack Earl... Mr. David B. Foulger

Between the acts the following specialties were introduced:

The Misses Verda Edwards, Hazel Campbell, Nettie Rogers, Anna Wilcox, Cleo Clayton and Bessie Edwards, all dressed as little market girls, rendered in pleasing style the song entitled, "Experience," and responded to an encore with "Coming Through the Rye."

Masters Merrill Evans, Ewell Wanless, Guy Burgen, Walter Rogers, Valdo Anderson, Elwood Winters and Earl Evans sang in concert the song entitled "Arra Wanna" and responded to an encore with "Pompy is Dead."

Merrill Evans then rendered in an excellent manner "Who Threw the Overalls in Mrs. Murphy's Chowder?"

Arbor Day.

Monday, April 15th has been set apart as Arbor Day by Governor John C Cutler who has issued the following proclamation:—

"Whereas, By the statutes of the state of Utah, the 15th day of April is set apart to be observed as Arbor Day and

"Whereas: It is made the duty of the governor to issue a proclamation calling for the observance of this day; now, therefore,

"I, John C Cutler, governor of the state of Utah, by virtue of the requirement of the statutes, and in accordance with the public custom and sentiment, do hereby designate Monday, April 15th, 1907, as Arbor Day, to be observed as such throughout the state.

"I urge the observance of this day in the spirit and with the aim which actuated the Honorable J Sterling Morton in first suggesting that such a day be celebrated. This would include, first of all, the planting of as many trees and shrubs and flowers as possible, both by private individuals and by the officers of public institutions. If these institutions, in connection with the work of planting, will conduct such exercises as most effectually to impress upon the minds of the present and of the future citizens of the state the great value and beauty of a thrifty, growing tree, a double object will be accomplished.

"Especially in the schools should this be done. By a proper appeal to the loyalty and public spirit of the students, it will be possible for the beautifying of school grounds to be secured, and at the same time for this invaluable lesson to be taught. The children should understand that each growing tree has a life, the destruction of which is an offense. And thus will the duty of man to beautify the earth and make it a better home, be impressed upon those who are entering upon the actual duties of life.

"Householders would do well to occupy the day not only in planting trees, but in renovating and beautifying their homes and grounds, as a means of preserving health, and as a valuable object lesson to their children and neighbors."
